PRESS RELEASE

April 25, 2011 @ 1:30pm

Warren County Sheriff Kevin Harrison reports the arrest of a 40 year old man from Marthasville on April 22, 2011 for charges of Burglary in the 1st Degree. The charges originated from a 911 call regarding a domestic disturbance where a male suspect forced entry into a home on Smith Creek Road, and was threatening to kill the residents with a shotgun. The suspect was identified as:

Michael, G. Schuler, W, M, 40 Years Old
18000 Block of Bernheimer Road, Marthasville, MO
Burglary First Degree
$100,000.00 Cash Bond

WCSD Patrol Deputy Kurt Hey and Sergeant Scott Taylor were dispatched to a residence on Smith Creek Road to investigate a report that Schuler had called the resident advising he was on his way over and planned to kill everybody inside the residence. Upon arrival Schuler forced entry into the home, and was threatening the occupants with a shotgun. When the deputies attempted to take Schuler into custody he resisted arrest, but after a brief physical altercation he was taken into custody with no injuries to suspect or deputies.
